REPORTS

(A) THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

To the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church meeting in Central Church, Asheboro, Novemrer 4, 1937, in the one hundred and tenth session:
Dear Brethren:

Through the providence of the Great Head of the Church we are again permitted to see each other's faces and to join in the business of this Annual Session. We would confess our sins, both of commission and omission, as we remember the innumerable blessings which have followed us through the year like the pillar of cloud His chosen ones in the long ago. For we know that if we confess our sins He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us of all unrighteousness. Let us humbly seek His favor as we transact the business of His Church.

I shall offer my report as Editor of the Methodist Protestant Herald as a separate report to you.

These Have Finished Their Earthly Tasks

On November 13, Sister Hunter, wife of Brother A. L. Hunter, went home. On November 27, Brother W. T. Totten, one of our Superannuated ministers, went to his reward. Again the Grim Reaper comes and takes from us Brother T. A. Williams, on November 30. On January 10, Sister Reynolds, wife of Brother G. L. Reynolds, ceased her suffering to enter upon her eternal rest. On August 23, Sister Kennett, wife of Brother W. C. Kennett, who preceded her to the glory land, went home after reaching the age of four score and ten. Obituary committees have been appointed for all these and they will report to this Conference at the time appointed.

And these all having received a good report through faith have entered upon their reward; but God having provided that we shall help complete their work, has spared us to bear record this day of their faithfulness to Him and to the tasks committed to their hands.

The Fellowship Crusade

Since a folder declaring the purpose of this Crusade has been placed into the hands of all of our pastors and published both in the Record and in the Trumpeter, we do not deem it necessary to do more here than to call to your attention what we have done about it. We have asked the Chairman of the Committee on Evangelism to prepare and submit to you such recommendations as he thinks are needed for us to realize this objective. A committee on the Recorder has been appointed and we shall expect this committee to make definite recommendations for securing larger subscriptions to that paper. Likewise, the Herald committee will doubtles present suggestions for increasing subscriptions to the Herald; and so we hope we shall reach objective number two. For realizing the third objective, a committee has been appointed to bring to your attention certain matters pertinent to our indebtedness on the boards and institutions of our Church. And so we trust, we shall have time for due consideration to all these objectives of the Crusade.

Our Children's Home

We are calling especial attention to the report of Superintendent Dixon to this Conference, for herein is brought to your consideration first hand the accomplishments and the needs of this institution. We believe you will give to it and to him your most cordial consideration. Beloved, we are doing a great work here. Greater, we believe than many of our people are aware of.

The Methodist Protestant-Recorder

This is the official organ of our denomination. Its past service is not the only ground of its appeal to us for support. That service has been indispensable to our growth as a denomination and the Editorial Chair has been occupied by some of our greatest leaders.

But the Recorder still offers to both pastor and people a medium through which we may grow by subscribing to and reading its pages. Our people in this Conference should take the Recorder. It might go into many times the homes it now makes it weekly visitation into. And we hope the Recorder committee shall find a way by which this shall happen.

The Methodist Protestant Herald

It has been the task of your president to edit this paper the present Conference year. It has been a pleasant task—really we have enjoyed it. While submitting our report as Editor and Business Manager separately, we want to say here, we think we owe it to ourselves to make the Herald a better paper and we believe it could easily be done were our people to become Herald conscious by becoming Herald readers. We are expecting the Herald committee to bring some vital suggestions to you at this annual meeting.

High Point College

High Point College is having the best year in its history. The attendance upon the school during this semester far exceeds the attendance of any other year. The completion of the Wrenn Memorial Library and the Stadium present two indisputable evidences of a new lease on life—proofs that the College is going on even though it has had a tremendous load to carry. President Humphreys will bring to you in his annual report such facts and items of interest as are vital to our consideration at this session and we hope that some means may be provided for clearing the way for further progress by reducing the indebtedness upon the institution to the vanishing point in the near future.

Status of First Church, Charlotte

In order that the First Church, Charlotte, situation shall be better understood, we want to review the case briefly here. Hearing that Pastor Hendry and some of the members of First Church were opposed to Methodist unification we visited Pastor Hendry and discussed this matter several times. In one of my visits to him in the early part of this year I agreed to appoint a special committee of ministers and laymen to represent the North Carolina Annual Conference to meet with a committee of First Church and see if an agreement could be reached by which this Church property could be sold to them; for it had become evident that our most loyal people had left the Church. The committees met but our committee did not think the offer made by the committee representing First Church was enough for the property and told them that they would not recommend this to the next Annual Conference. So this effort ended here.

Some time after this, the congregation of First Church passed a resolution authorizing the Church to borrow $8,000 on the property and to pay off the present indebtedness which then was $5,500. The proposal was approved and the money was borrowed. The debt of $5,500 was paid.

Not long after this occurred the membership of this Church voted to deed this this Church property, which belonged to First Methodist Protestant Church, to the First Community Church, for no other consideration than the Community Church would assume the $8,000 then due on the property. Being informed of this I again visited Charlotte, verified the rumor, saw the deed which had been recorded, transferring the property to the Community Church, also saw the statement of faith of the First Community Church, and was told it had been fully organized and that Rev. G. H. Henry was the chosen pastor and that the First Methodist Protestant Church did not have a pastor at all. Having with me several of our ministers, we agreed that the proper course for us to pursue was to employ legal counsel, this was done soon after, our lawyers are Stewart and Bobbitt, Charlotte, who at once instituted suit for the recovery of our praperty; the case is to come up in Mecklenburg County Superior Court sometime in the near future, the date has not yet been fixed.

Having disposed of this phase of the case, I addressed a communication to Mr. Hendry and suggested that since his acts had proven conclusively that he no longer desired to remain in the Methodist Protestant Church, that if he would surrender his credentials this act would complete his separation from us. Not hearing from his as to this suggestion, I wrote him that his acts were such that I would prefer charges of maladministration against him unless he gave up his standing in the Methodist Protestant Church. He did not make a reply to me by letter but did state through a Charlotte paper, which appeared to be sponsoring his cause, that he would defy the President of the Conference. Charges were preferred, he was tried by five of the ministers of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church; five witnesses from First Methodist Protestant Church, Charlotte, appeared before the committee, and after due consideration Mr. Hendry was found guilty as charged and was suspended from all official relations in the Methodist Protestant Church. This sentence was duly executed, the Secretary of the Committee sent him a copy of the sentence signed by the President of the Conference and by the Secretary of the committee. He was told that if he desired to appeal from this decision he had twenty days from that day. He has made no appeal and we recommend that his name be dropped from the Conference roll of ministers.

And now since the First Community Church has refused to keep up its payments on the mortgage to the Jefferson Standard, this property is to be sold on the 15th day of November at the Courthouse door in Charlotte.

As the situation there is quite unsettled in the community of the First Methodist Protestant Church, I recommend that a special committee of five be appointed by this Conference to canvass the situation there and try to report before this Conference shall adjourn in order that we may determine whether we shall attempt to reorganize the work there or not.

The State of the Church

In making our appraisal of the state of the Church as it is represented in this Annual Conference, we have used such materials as was sent to us in the reports of the pastors after holding their fourth quarterly conferences and our observation of the general tendency of Church activities. A comparison made here with the results obtained a few years ago would be useful; but we forego this. Here are some facts as found in the reports of sixty-one pastors, of these reporting; fourteen want to change pastorates; thirteen are undecided; thirty-four will be glad to return to the old pastorate; nine pastoral charges have increased the pastor's salaries for next year; one decreased it; thirty-eight charges paid salaries in full, seven charges had not fixed salary for next year. As to budgets: twenty-eight charges paid W. S. in full; twenty-five have paid A. C. budget in full; forty-one report Herald subsidy paid in full. There are here given the charges which have paid in full but in some cases two or more churches on charges have paid out, but we could not count the charges as being out. You must keep in mind that about twenty pastor's reports are not counted in this survey and there will be some changes made in some which did report. But the materials are valuable and indicate an improvement in finances over last year.

Membership statistics show the following, there have been 786 accessions to these churches reporting with a net gain in membership of 549; of course, these figures will be considerably changed. We would predict a net gain in membership much greater than these reports seem to indicate. Summing up the reports placed into my hands by the pastors, we are of the opinion that our work, as a whole, is in a very good condition. We have encouraged all of our pastors to correct their Church registers even though they should have to report a net loss and we hope it has been done by all of them so thoroughly that the number of members reported to Conference will tally with the actual members of our churches.

The Budget Scheme

We believe it wise to continue the budget schedule approved two years ago fixing the time for raising the Annual Conference budget as follows:

January-February: A. C. Expenses.
March-April: High Point College.
May-June: Church Extension.
July-August: Annual Conference Debt.
September-October: Superannuates.

My Valedictory

And now again it becomes my duty as your president, to say farewell. But it likewise becomes my privilege to hail my successor and to bid him God-speed. These five years have quickly passed into the chambers of memory. But in their passing they have carried many tokens of your confidence and esteem; these I shall hold as the richest heritage of this office. I appreciate most profoundly the privilege you have given me to serve my Lord and my Church in this capacity. Your kindness has been unstinted and your consideration has been so great that no hardship has been exacted of me during these five years. I have endeavored to perform the duties of two: editing the Methodist Protestant Herald and serving as your president this year. The new office has entailed more traveling and more time spent in my study. But I have enjoyed the work and have tried to the best of my ability to maintain a dual consciousness of being your President and your Editor. And while the work has not been too much for me, I do not think this Conference really desires to continue this arrangement. That, however, is a matter for the Conference to decide.

And now as I shall step down in order that my successor shall step into my place and my mantle shall fall upon his shoulders; let me join you who shall choose him, in praying heaven's richest blessings upon him, that he shall have grace, wisdom and physical strength to perform faithfully and well the tasks of this office.

Respectfully submitted,

R. M. ANDREWS.

(B) STEWARDSHIP

We, your Committee on Stewardship, wish to report the following observations:

First, From a study of many former reports, we find that the Stewardship of money has been the main theme, and that the Stewwardship of All of Life has not been dealt with in the main.

Second, That the Stewardship of Individual Responsibility, of Influence, Talent, Home, School, State, Our Fellowmen in general, has not been emphasized as we believe all these, and any others that may come in for their share of attention, should be; and we believe that the proper emphasis placed upon all of these, would cause us to realize more the importance of greater liberality, and a better system of giving,—

Therefore we recommend, That in our preaching and practising we give more thought to the Stewardship of All of Life.

N. G. BETHEA.

(D) COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL RECOMMENDATIONS IN THE FELLOWSHIP CRUSADE

Your Committee is charged with the responsibility of making financial recommendations to this Conference which will carry out one phase of the Fellowship Crusade which has been described as "a concerted movement throughout the Methodist Protestant Church which seeks to quicken the spiritual life of our members and to provide new outlets for loyalty and service to Christ." That phase of the program which emphasizes the quickening of the spiritual life will be given due consideration by your Committee on Evangelism. The second phase of the program, namely. that which emphasizes literature, will be considered by your Committee on The Methodist Protestant-Recorder and your Committee on The Methodist Protestant Herald. This report, therefore, is to deal with the third phase of the Fellowship Crusade—that part which provides "new outlets for loyalty and service to Christ" in financial support.

We feel the moral impact upon us to do something about our financial obligations. First, because the other two great Methodist churches are making special effort to set their houses in financial order by the time of Methodist Union; the Methodist Episcopal Church with her "Million Unit Fellowship", and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, with her "Bishops' Crusade". Secondly, we feel an obligation to do something about our liabilities because many of them are of long standing and demand attention because of their age, and, also, because they are standing in the way of new plans of kingdom service. And thirdly, our entire denomination is entering into the Fellowship Crusade.

In addition to the indebtedness on High Point College and the indebtedness of the denominational Boards, both of which we should share in liquidating, we have the following Annual Conference obligations:

Liabilities of Trustees of District Parsonage	$12,568.28
Liabilities of Board of Church Extension	4,700.00
Liabilities of Treasurer of Annual Conference	1,500.00
Total Liabilities	$18,768.28

Be it Resolved, therefore,

First, That we endorse the Fellowship Crusade in all three of its aspects.

Secondly, That we pledge ourselves to strive to raise thirty thousand dollars annually for the next two years to be applied the first year as follows:—

For High Point College	$15,000.00
For N. C. Annual Conference Interests (By which is meant the three above listed boards or treasurers. Amounts to be pro-rated between these three according to the money raised and the several obligations).	7,000.00
For the General Conference Boards	8,000.00

Thirdly, That the Fellowship Crusade Committee be created to devise plans for raising this money, said plans to be presented to and endorsed by this Annual Conference, and to supervise the prosecution of these plans during the coming year. The Fellowship Crusade Committee shall be composed of the President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Annual Conference, the President of the North Carolina Woman's Branch, Treasurer of the Board of Church Extension, the Treasurer of Board of Trustees of District Parsonages, the Chairmen of the Committees on Evangelism and Methodist Protestant Herald, Rev. J. Clyde Auman, Judge Lewis E. Teague, and the Editor of The Methodist Protestant Herald.

Respectfully submitted,

J. ELWOOD CARROLL, Chairman,
E. LESTER BALLARD, Secretary.

(E) THE COMMISSION ON METHODIST COOPERATION

Dear Brethren:

The Commission held its annual meeting in the office of the Editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, with all the participating Conference represented, but with a rather small attendance due to unavoidable absences on the part of the representatives from the three bodies constituting the Commission.

The Chairman of the Commission, Dr. M. T. Plyler, submitted a historic statement of the origin and purpose of the Commission. On motion of Dr. W. P. Few, the paper was ordered made a part of this report and the basis for any suggestions we may have to make to the Conference. It is as follows:

The two Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church at their annual session in 1922 provided for a Joint Commission. This Commission met in Greensboro, January 18, 1923, and organized by selecting Rev. M. T. Plyler, President and Rev. R. C. Stubbins, Secretary.

The personnel of the Joint Commission was as follows: Methodist Protestant Church, Rev. T. M. Johnson, Rev. J. D. Williams, Rev. R. C. Stubbins, Mr. R. F. Williams, Mr. J. H. Allen and Mr. L. F. Ross. Methodist Episcopal Church, South; Rev. J. H. Barnhardt, Rev. J. F. Kirk and Mr. Fred N. Tate, representing the Western North Carolina Conference and Rev. M. T. Plyler, Rev. C. B. Culbreth and Dr. W. P. Few, representing the North Carolina Conference.

The commission caused the following address to be sent to the Methodists of North Carolina: "We are duly mindful of the common origin of our separate Methodisms, which are one in spirit, life and doctrine; and always have been a unit in the effort to spread scriptural holiness over the land. Moreover, the increasing complexity of the social order, with its problems and the readjustments going on about us, admonish us that our Methodist people must gather their forces for a more vigorous church life and unite for a mutual advance. Under the blessings of Heaven, our two Methodist churches must become a still greater force for righteousness and spiritual advance in North Carolina. Every atom of energy must be mobilized against a common foe; loss of power and effectiveness, due to unnecessary friction, must cease. What can Methodists do to contribute to this end? We would suggest:

1. That our preachers and people come to know the efforts and aspirations of each by cultivating more cordial and intimate relations one with the other. Interchange of pulpits and union of efforts in revival campaigns may prove helpful to this end.

2. That wherever the two churches are working side by side in a community, careful attention and serious thought be given by both churches to see that some way be found to prevent antagonism and waste of energy in doing the work that Methodism as a whole should do. These local issues must be worked out by the good men and women who are on the ground and have been brought to see the sin of depleted strength that ought to be united against the enemies of righteousness.

3. That due attention be given to co-ordinating undertakings and to readjustments of churches in certain sections where both must continue a useless struggle until the best and wisest will be convinced of the folly of present methods. Why not move to have the conferences involved in this venture in North Carolina to establish a permanent Board of Meditation?

4. That we plan and pray that our two Methodisms may this good year of our Lord be one in spirit and aim and effort in doing the work to which we are called in North Carolina."

At a second meeting in Greensboro, October 10, of the same year, the Commission recommended to the Conference that this Joint Commission be continued and authorized to use its best efforts to aid in the work of the two Methodisms. Since we "favor and long for a united Methodism," our first concern was to secure closer and more intimate cooperation between the two churches. Expressing our gratitude for the cordial and brotherly relations existing between the members of the great Methodist family we suggested interchange of pulpits and certain readjustments as soon as possible of our country church work. From the first, fraternal messages have been heard at each conference session.

In 1932 further gratification was expressed over the appointment of the Commission of the three Methodisms looking to the present plan which is now nearing the final action of the Conferences.

A ten year plan, similar to that which led to the union of English Methodism, was suggested in 1933, but the union movement has gone so much faster than any of us had thought possible a few years ago that a decade was not necessary.

In connection with the Sesqui-Centennial Celebration of American Methodism, January 6, 1935, the first united conference of the three Methodisms in this state was held in Greensboro, Bishop Wm. F. McDowell, of Washington, being the chief speaker. We have come along these past fifteen years pleased to know each other better as we have moved to the union of American Methodism.

Would not this Aldersgate year be a favorable time for Methodism to become more nearly one in soul and body by stressing these experiences of early Methodists in all our churches? Allow me to suggest that this Commission take some definite action to report to our annual Conferences.

As suggested by the paper, the Commission recommends that we give our thought and attention to the celebration of the Aldersgate experience, participating annual conferences to act with their Commission in planning programs and selecting places in which the three Methodisms may come together in the observance of this event which is our common origin. We are naming, Thursday, December 2, 1937, at 10:00 A. M., at the office of the Editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate as the time and place for holding the first meeting of the joint committee.

We would call attention to our report to the Conferences held last year to the suggestions made therein concerning efforts to bring our three groups into closer fellowship looking to the time when they shall be united into the one new Church. A good deal of progress has been made in this direction, a number of the churches putting at least some of the suggestions into practice. To these suggestions we would add that wherever possible the pastors and churches of the three groups unite in the holding of district conferences, under the direction of the Presiding Elders, the District Superintendents, and the President of the three Methodist bodies.

We are taking the liberty of naming Rev. C. B. Culberth to represent the Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the session of the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church; and Dr. M. T. Plyler to represent the two conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church.

May the blessing of God and the guidance of His Holy Spirit rest upon the deliberations of the Conferences as they meet in their sessions this fall.

M. T. PLYLER, Chairman
C. W. BATES, Secretary

(F) NORTH CAROLINA BRANCH OF WOMEN'S WORK

I should like to have you go with me on a journey to the head waters of the river Jordan. If we follow this stream from its source we find many little streams giving themselves to it. As the river flows on and on it gives itself to a sea around whose banks grow beautiful trees and flowers, and in whose waters we find food to sustain our bodies. This sea gives itself again to the river Jordan which flows on and on and waters the plain for sixty miles until it flows into another sea which receives the waters from the stream but never gives any of its water either to the plain or to another river. It has no outlet. Around this second sea no living thing grows, either in its waters or on its banks.

The first sea I mentioned is the Sea of Galilee. Our Master walked on its waters, and found his first disciples there.

The second sea is the Dead Sea, it keeps all its waters.

These two seas have their types in the church.

The first is typical of the church that rejoices in the beautiful, giving of loving service to humanity ever to the uttermost parts of the earth.

The second is typical of the church that keeps and keeps and keeps and finds no joy in service to the uttermost parts of the earth.

A sea that has no outlet becomes a stagnant dead sea. Likewise a church whose members have no outlet for their love becomes a stagnant dead church. The Master said of the man who would not use his talent: "Take ye the talent from him and give to him that hath ten talents."

Horace Mann gave some very splendid advice to which the women's organizations have listened. He said, "Be ashamed to die until you have achieved some victory for humanity."

The object of the Methodist Protestant Women's Work is to organize and strengthen the work of the women in the conference; to promote the spiritual, educational social and financial welfare of the churches; to increase intelligent interest in world wide missions and to acquaint the women with the whole program of the denomination.

We shall consider that we have really achieved a victory for humanity when we have enlisted the sympathies of all our women in this great work.

I heard recently that a member of an auxiliary that has been functioning only a few months asked the question: "Why didn't some one tell us before about all this work that was to be done?" There is real joy in service when the women have a thorough understanding of the purpose and plan of the Women's Auxiliary, and have definite, attainable goals set before them.

As we devote serious Mission Study to the problems that confront one people after another, year after year, we are becoming slowly but surely interested in world-wide missions. We are studying along two lines this year. The one concerns the Rebuilding of Rural America. The other concerns 250,000,000 people, one-seventh of the people of the world, and the system of religion, Mohammedanism, which has controlled their whole life. We are thinking of the difference it would make in the lives of those people if they could say "Our Father."

Our active auxiliaries have a better understanding of various phases of our work than was evident a year ago. There is an increased activity along spiritual and devotional lines, and these we consider as indicative of healthy growth.

Our records show 100 Women's Auxiliaries, 5,000 women are included in the memberships of the churches covered by these Auxiliaries. 2,700 women are cooperating in Auxiliary work. 531 subscribe to the Missionary Record. 48 Children's organizations are maintained; 733 children are enrolled in these. Six new auxiliaries have been organized since last conference, these are Mt. Pleasant and Lawndale on Cleveland Circuit, Kernersville, Haw River Circuit Auxiliary, Vickrey Church on Guilford Charge, Union Grove on Mocksville Charge and Gillburg on Vance Charge. Denton Ladies' Aid has become an Auxiliary. Pleasant Union Auxiliary on Mt. Pleasant Charge has been discontinued.

Benevolences

There have been innumerable gifts to our work that cannot be estimated by figures. There was genuine pleasure manifested in the presentation of gifts of cakes, canned goods, clothing, coupons, Christmas gifts to the Children's Home; quilts to Alvan Drew Industrial School at Pine Ridge, Ky; rugs to Bethel Home at Weaverville, N. C.; gifts to aged people in our home in West Lafayette, Ohio; and material to Dillonvale mission before our work there was discontinued. These were in addition to local work of gifts to churches and parsonages and other local service. Our opportuniy to help Mr. Minnis with the expense of transporting his automobile to India met with a ready response.

Pastors' Aid

Lacking necessary data I have made no attempt to appraise the work of the Ladies Aid Societies. These have doubtless met many local needs, but we greatly desire to stimulate in them the desire to enlarge their sympathies. To this end we have created a new office in the N. C. Work. Mrs. E. Lester Ballard has been elected Secretary of Pastors' Aid in the Branch. We already had Pastors Aid in the Auxiliaries who sponsor all local work formerly done by Aid Societies. Through our Branch Secretary of Pastors Aid we hope to get in future a more accurate knowledge of all the work done by the women of the church. We also hope, through her good work to effect the merging of our remaining Aid Societies with Auxiliaries or the organization of Auxiliaries to take the place of Ladies Aid Societies.

Student Loan Fund

Since the opening of High Point College in 1924, we have made loans to ninety five students, through our Student Loan Fund. Twenty two students have receved loans since last conference.

Financial

Our budget for the Branch year April to April is $10,000. We will still need $1,269 to meet this budget when all auxiliaries apportionments have been met in full.

In order to meet the unapportioned part of our budget we have two plans. We have assumed $750.00 of the salary of Rev. J. F. Minnis, missionary to India, as a special above the auxiliary apportionments, and the Young People's organizations are asked to raise $300 for the part of Mr. Minnis' salary that goes to the upkeep of his three children. Missionaries who have children receive one hundred dollars annually for each of their children, and we feel reasonably sure that our young people in the State will be glad to raise this part of our budget. Cards have been issued by Mesdames Hammer, Nicholson and Kearns, asking for "Prayers" and "Sharers" and "The Budget in Full."

Another plan has been used that should bear some fruit. All pastors who have churches without auxiliaries have been asked to distribute to women in these churches, leaflets bearing the title "How Much Do You Believe in Evangelism?" which we furnished them. Those who read these leaflets should have received a specific appeal for a "love gift" to be applied on World Service from their churches. We hope those who have not responded to that appeal will yet do so.

North Carolina has never yet had the joy of meeting its World Service budget in full, though many of our auxiliaries meet their apportionments in full. We earnestly hope that the day is not far distant when we shall have an Auxiliary in every church.

Our Supreme task is to lift up Christ so that Love will be the supreme law of life.

"He marked our trail! Along the uncertain road,
Where we must tread the journey day by day,
Walked One who marked the trail to His abode,
And said "Come, follow me! I am the Way."

(J) CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

One of the most important functions of the church today is the Christian Education of its people. A majority of persons coming into the church come through the Sunday School and the general life of the church is enriched by Christian Education.

A. Institutions

We are proud of the work which all of our denominational institutions are doing. We endorse the work of High Point College and urge the support of President Humphreys and the program of the college. We call upon pastors and people to see that the assessment for High Point College is raised in full. We reaffirm our belief that this is the best school for Methodist Protestant boys and girls in this section.

Dr. Forlines is to be commended on the improvement made at the Seminary. We covet a warm place in the hearts of our membership for this School of the Prophets. We recommend that a special time be designated for the preachers to stress Christian Education and that one Sunday's offering during the month of December go to the Seminary.

B. Religious Education

We recommend that this Conference cooperate in every possible way in the fourfold program, outlined and promoted by our Conference Council and the Department of Religious Education of the General Board, for the Christian Education of children, youth, and adults; and the special effort of training leaders for our local churches.

W. M. HOWARD, Jr.,
JAMES T. BOWMAN.

(K) MINISTER'S MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION

Your committee appointed this morning to take under consideration the Ministers' Mutual Benefit Association, as set up by the Albemarle Conference last year, has taken the matter under careful consideration, and we unanimously make the following recommendations:

1. That hereafter a flat rate of one per cent be laid on the salaries of all ministers and preachers working under the appointment of the Conference.

2. That as now, the first $500 on all salaries be exempt.

3. That this money be paid to the Treasurer of the Conference, and carefully designated M. M. B. A. Payments may be made during the interim of conference, or during the conference session through the Conference Treasurer's envelop.

4. That any member of the Conference who does not cooperate in this plan will not be allowed to participate in this fund upon his superannuation until all of his back dues are paid. Provided, however, that this rule shall not hold against pastors whose salaries do not exceed $500.

5. That a record be kept from year to year of all pastors who pay their percentage allotment, and that this record be preserved in the files of the Superannuate Fund Society.

6. That the money derived for Superannuates from this source be turned over at each conference to the Conference Board of Superannuates, and that the total amount be distributed each year by them.

7. We recommend, further, that a refund of one per cent be made by the Conference Treasurer to all ministers and preachers who paid two per cent this year.

(L) CONFERENCE COUNCIL OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

During the past year we have rendered service to the local churches through the different divisions of the Council. It is impossible to make a detailed report here. The reports of the superintendents of the various divisions are filed with the Secretary. As president of the Council, I want to extend a word of appreciation to these workers for their faithful service. We are glad to note an improvement in both the interest that is being manifest in the work and the quality of work that is being done in this field throughout the Conference.

The Methodist Protestant Herald has rendered valuable service to the Council. We want to thank the editor for the space he has so graciously given to our program.

The following recommendations are presented as our program for the future:

1. That recommendations 2, 4, 6 of last year's report be continued for another year.

2. That threefold "Teaching Mission" be launched to include the following:

A. Three conferences on Christian Education (one for each Pastor's Federation) and that these conferences be held in the second week in January.

B. A series of articles on Christian Education be published in the Methodist Protestant Herald.

C. A series of leadership education schools be held including local classes, area schools and the High Point College school, June 20-25.

3. That we again extend our appreciation to Rev. F. L. Gibbs for his faithful service to the local churches and the Conference and that we pledge to him our continued support.

4. That our Sunday schools be urged to cooperate with Westminster Theological Seminary in the matter of securing books for the Seminary library.

5. That we observe Young People's Day in January, 1938, in all of our charges.

Respectfully Submitted,

T. J. WHITEHEAD, President.

(M) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We have studied the message of the President carefully and consider it a modest report of his many duties as our chief executive, especially in view of the fact that he served in the dual capacity of President of the Conference and editor of The Methodist Protestant Herald.

We commend him especially for his method of handling the preliminary procedures of the Fellowship Crusade by appointing certain committees to present plans to this Annual Conference for carrying out the purposes of the Crusade; and also, for the thorough and fair manner in which he handled the delicate and complicated Charlotte Church situation. We concur in the recommendation that the name of Rev. G. H. Hendry be deleted from the Conference roll of ministers. We endorse the recommendation that the Committee on Investigation of the Charlotte Church be appointed. We favor the President's suggestion in regard to the continuation of the schedule adopted two years ago for the time of raising the Annual Conference claims (See report). We recommend that the President's message be printed in full in the Journal.

REV. J. W. BRAXTON,
D. T. HUSS.

(N) REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF THE M. P. CHILDREN'S HOME, HIGH POINT, N. C.

NOVEMBER 6th, 1937

Members and Friends of the Annual Conference:

Dear Fellow Workers:

With gratitude to God for His continued blessings upon us, and with thanks to you for your cooperation, and to our people generally for their sympathy and help, we take pleasure in presenting to you our annual report.

The Children

We have 110 children, 54 girls and 56 boys. The two college boys who are helping with the work in the boy's dormitory this year are two of our own boys who entered High Point College in September. They are doing fine work among the boys. The health of the children has been unusually good, and the Doctors and Dentists have been exceedingly kind in rendering cheerfully all needed services. We let the health of our children speak for their keeps, and we challenge any other home to present a better health record.

The Government And Child Care

Through the Social Security Act, which became operative on July 1, 1937, it was thought that orphanages would be somewhat relieved of the strain that has been upon them. Through this act the Government proposes to aid dependent children; but somehow very little relief has come to the orphanages yet from that source. Some relief will perhaps come to some dependent children, but there will always be more dependent children than the orphanages can care for. So the entrance of the State and Federal Government into the field of child care has not diminished the demand upon your Children's Home.

Additions to Property And Equipment

During the year we have—

1. Bought a new bus, built to carry 40 people. The Nance Chevrolet Company of Asheboro gave us their commissions on the chassis, and the Hackney Brothers of Wilson gave us their commissions on the body, and made a liberal donation. So we got an excellent bus at a little over $1,000 by paying cash. The Christian Endeavorers of the denomination, with a few Sunday school classes and a few individuals, have paid $389.71, and we borrowed enough to pay the balance. A bus like that should last at least ten years.

2. We removed some old dilapidated sheds and an old potato house, and built a new potato house and a four space garage. This is for the school bus, one car, farm trucks and tractor.

3. We built gravel roads to each dormitory, to overcome the muddy conditions in winter.

4. Through the help of Mr. T. D. Harris of Washington, D. C., and by taking a small amount out of the A. S. Pickett estate, we built memorial gates at the entrances of the drive way to the Girls' Dormitory. We are hoping that some body will be led to build similar gates in front of the Boy's Dormitory.

5. Through the gift of fence posts from Cleveland Charge and from Davidson Charge we were enabled to put our pasture fences in good condition. As soon as crops are in, and there is a bit of spare time, we hope to put our barn lot fences in good condition.

Our Branch Secretary

Mrs. J. M. Stone of Greensboro is the Children's Home Secretary from the North Carolina Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, as Secretary of Benevolences as she is officially called. Mrs. Stone has been very faithful to the Home, lending a hand whenever possible. It was through her solicitation that the cash amount was raised for the bus.

The Hand of Death

We sorrowfully report the death of Mr. Charles F. Finch of Thomasville, who was a faithful member of the Board of Trustees of the Home. His counsel and his contributions will be greatly missed. The Trustees in their recent meeting appointed a committee to draft suitable resolutions in memory of Brother Finch. They also elected Mrs. Charles F. Finch to take his place on the Board of Trustees.

Bequests

We have had notice of the following bequests during the year:

1. Mr. H. G. Ellington, Harris Chapel, Vance, created a trust fund of $750.00 for the Home, interest on same to be paid semi-annually.

2. Mr. L. P. Byrd of Mt. Gilead remembered the Home, leaving 3% of the residue of his estate to it. This will is in litigation, but we are hoping that something will be coming to us out of it.

3. Mr. C. L. Trantham of Haw River Circuit remembered the Home, but his heirs had the will set aside.

The Trustees have voted to set aside any amounts coming through bequests as a Reserve Fund, the interest only to be used for current expenses, except by direction of the Trustees. So our people must meet the running expenses of the Home by living gifts.

Is The Work Worth While, And Are We Undertaking Too Much?

Twenty seven years ago we determined that it is a worthwhile work, and now our 200, or more, young people scattered over this State and others testify to the worthwhileness of it. They speak for themselves in tones of eloquence bidding us press on in this great service.

And what, with 220 churches and 30,000 members, is 110 children for us to care for? That gives us about two churches per child, or one child for every 270 members; or counting out the contributions by the Duke Endowment and the General Conference, and also what comes in from other conferences about Thanksgiving and Christmas, it leaves about $18,000 per year to be raised by North Carolina Methodist Protestants.

Some Outstanding Gifts In Substance

A bundle of outings by the Minneola Manufacturing Company, Gibsonville; a bundle of ginghams, by the E. M. Holt Plaid Mills, Burlington; a bundle of remnants by the Erlanger Mills of Lexington; 500 chicks by the North State Hatchery, Greensboro; 48 shirts, the Sherrod Shirt Company, High Point; nearly 200 yards of homespun, The Biltmore Industries, Asheville; Cleveland Circuit 900 black locust posts cut and gotten out for us; 225 cedar posts by Mr. A. C. Harris, Chapel Hill, on Davidson. These were cut and delivered to us by the men of Liberty church on Davidson; ten bags of flour, Mr. C. H. Kirkman, Tabernacle Church; 40 bushels of peaches by Mr. M. C. McDonald, West End, N. C.; 24 bushels peaches by Rev. N. M. Harrison, Asheboro; and besides these a large number of the harvest home offerings last Fall were fine. And we are expecting even better this time, for we put out over 2,000 empty glass jars to be filled. The most of these remain to be gathered in yet, and many others will contribute who did not take the jars.

Present Financial Condition

Through the regular contributions, by the help of two splendid bequests, and with larger contributions from both the Duke Endowment and the General Conference, we were enabled to pay our bills in full, as of April 1. Then came the Summer slump in the regular offerings and we fell behind again. Following that came the last payments of the Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Pickett estate and we were up again. And now the Fall and Winter supplies have had to be bought and we are a bit behind again. But we are practically running even now. You will please understand though that we have no bequests to fall back on for the coming year, so if the Home keeps out of debt the free-will offerings will have to be larger. This should begin with an increased Thanksgiving offering from every church and Sunday school in the Conference. If somehow we can reach all our people, and get an offering from practically every body it will be done.

History of the Home

Mrs. Mabel Williams Russell has written a history of the first twenty-five years of the Home as operated at Denton and at High Point. It was not an easy task to get together the facts for such a booklet. We understand it is on the press and will be at this Conference for distribution. You will want to distribute it among your people.

Thanksgiving

It is absolutely necessary that we have a good offering at Thanksgiving. We try to plan for it each year as wisely as we can, and yet with the increasing prosperity, Thanksgiving offerings for the Home have not increased. Too many of our churches are satisfied "to do as well this year as we did last year." We need an increased Thanksgiving Offering. What suggestions have you to offer?

Looking to the Future

We are still dreaming about, hoping for and planning for a Central Office, Dining room and Kitchen, and also a Gymnasium for our older boys and girls. These two buildings are greatly needed. It is a great opportunity for somebody to put them up as memorial buildings. We trust that the dear Father will lead to the erection of these two buildings.

The Farm

The farmers and the boys have worked faithfully during the year. They started out with an ambition to make the farm yield for the year $10,000 worth of produce, meat, milk, butter, chickens and eggs, but they fell short of it by a little more than $800.

The farm yielded 4,900 lbs. pork, 1,164 lbs. beef, 136 bu. Irish potatoes, 2,252 doz, eggs, 13,818 gallons milk, 296 bu. corn, 128 loads of hay, 262 chickens for our tables, 88 bu. wheat, 45 bu. barley, oats and vetch; the straw from this grain; about 75 bu. cane seed, 237 bu. sweet potatoes, 14 bu. seed onions, about 600 watermelons, 3 bu. seed peas, gardens and truck patches estimated at $500, and a cash item of $243.87 for the sale of cattle and pigs. This make a total from the farm of $9,129.92. About 50% of this is clear profit.

Live Stock on Hand

We have five mules and one mare, 12 milk cows, 8 heifers and 9 head of other dry cattle, 17 hogs and shoats for killing, three stock hogs and 260 chickens. These are worth at least $2,500.

Our farm machinery and tools are in fair condition, except for the tractor and two old farm trucks. The tractor has been in use for nine seasons, and we do not know how long the trucks have been in use since we bought used ones. The tractor should be replaced next Spring if possible.

(P) REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF HIGH POINT COLLEGE

Brethren:

It is my privilege to submit to you my report for the seventh consecutive year as president of the college. And while such a report must, of necessity, be in the way of routine, yet I trust that there will be enough in its content to lift it above just routine. I speak

First, as to enrollment: the information that I bring you relative to this item is in itself out of the ordinary. The peak enrollment, reached last year at the second semester was 298; but at the first semester last year we enrolled 278. This year we have registered 404 —a gain of 126. To report a 45.3% gain in registration—well that is news. Our dormitory group increased to 210, while the day group grew to 194. Our total of men exceed women by 22; and the Freshman Class numbers 156.

There are 45 students from 17 states, including the District of Columbia; 3 from South America, 1 from Porto Rico, and 1 from Turkey.

In religious affiliation we have 110 Methodist Protestants, 108 of the M E. Church, South, 80 Baptist, 23 Presbyterian, 11 Reformed, 11 Friends, 10 Catholic, and the rest distributed among 12 other religious bodies. In addition to the Methodists of the Southern Church and of our Church, we have 8 of the Methodist Episcopal Church and 1 Primitive Methodist. Thus you see that our Methodist student group totals about 56%.

When the second semester enrollment is made our peak for the year will probably reach 425. This regular enrollment, together with the Summer School and Extension Students will give us a grand total of over 700 students. Surely, High Point College is growing, and continuing to make record in these first 13 years of its history such as has not been equalled in the history of any Liberal Arts College.

Second, I submit a brief story of Finances. We again closed the current year ending September 1, without a deficit; that is to say, we kept the ordinary current expenditures below the amount from student income. This has been done for three consecutive years; we are rather proud of such a record.

The financial support from the Annual Conference approximated $2200; from the Branch about $1000; giving us a total of something over $3200—these amounts, of course, are for the period of May 1, 1936 to May 1, 1937; all monies coming from the churches since May 1, up to this session, will count on the period ending May, 1938. You will note that in only one year since I have been president of the college has the amount raised in the conference equalled the $5,000 Budget set up. The average has been slightly over $3,000. The Board of Christian Education has continued its fine spirit and cooperation with the college, and in no year yet has penalized the college as to its appropriation because the Conference did not measure up to the challenge given it.

Improvements: Last conference, I reported that during that week the actual construction of the Wrenn Memorial Library had begun. The building was dedicated on Saturday of our last Commencement. The furnishings were installed during the summer, the books moved, and the Library was ready for the students when the college opened this September. Recently, a beautiful oil painting of the late Mr. M. J. Wrenn was unveiled; it hangs over the memorial fireplace and is a fitting and constant reminder of the thing that was in his heart and carried to fruition by the noble spirited woman who was the donor of the building. I hope that the members of this conference will avail themselves, whenever the opportunity offers, to inspect this beautiful building.

It was evident by the middle of the summer that we could not care for all the girls who were making application for dormitory rooms. By action of the Trustees I was authorized to negotiate a loan for $10,000 with which to finish the club room and one-half of the third story of Women's Hall. This was done and room for 18 more girls was provided; in addition, we placed 6 girls on Faculty Hall—giving us 96 in the building; and yet we had to turn away applicants for admission.

Many new furnishings had to be added, not alone for the new rooms in Women's Hall, but for McCulloch Hall. In all we were called upon to spend about $2,500 for such purposes.

The Stadium is fast nearing completion. The concrete stands seating over 3000 people are finished, public toilets and dressing room are now being finished; the track has about half the required amount of cinders on it, and the fence around the field will be erected in the near future. Already the project for grading, draining and fencing another field for baseball and football practice has been set up; this will be finished by the spring. When these are all done, we will have a most complete lay-out for all athletic programs both for the college and the community. All this has been made possible by the cooperation of the City and donations from individual citizens in the city.

Needs. And where shall I begin? We are growing rapidly, and all growth demands an expansion of facilities to care for that growth. Already we are taxed to the utmost in Roberts Hall to provide enough class rooms, and suitable in size, to care for the classes. Several classes, ranging from 75 to 100 have to be conducted in the chapel. Laboratory facilities are taxed to the limit and beyond. With present facilities in the administration building we have about reached the limit in the number of students we can well handle; certainly only a few more can be admitted. Our first great need, then, is a wing on Roberts Hall—running back from the center of the building to give us an auditorium seating 1000 people; and furnishing space for dining room and kitchen underneath. This would free the present chapel and dining room and kitchen for laboratory and class room uses. This could be done for $60,000.

Our next need is a Home Economic Building—and it is a real need. Then, too, we need an Infirmary Building where sick students can be adequately cared for with a graduate nurse in attendance. We need a recreational building. Of course I am not listing these needs as things we are going to ask this conference to do. But I am listing them that all of us may fully understand that growth in students means corresponding facilities to care for them. But more than just we understand this fact. I am listing them, that you may store them away in your minds; the day may come when some man or woman will want to memorialize some loved one by erecting a building on the campus; or will want to make a perpetual contribution by investing in youth through a building at High Point College. Think about it, friends; all that many a man of means has left behind him that was perpetuated, was what he had given away while he lived.

Some Objectives Attained. Soon after coming to the college I set up three general objectives: 1—The decreasing of the indebtedness together with an increase in assets. Last conference I reported that more than $100,000 had been eliminated as compared with the previous conference year. During the past 7 years our assets have been increased, fairly appraised at $150,000; that is, if we were called upon to duplicate these added assets today; such are as follows: President's Home, $14,500, Professor's House $7,500, Gymnasium $22,500, Library and furnishings $40,000, hard surfaced road and curbing $1,000, shrubbery and plants $1,000, bookstore $1,000, and the stadium, with $12,500 in materials and construction, estimated by completion, at $50,000.

2—To free every endorser on any note, signed in the interest of the college. This has been accomplished, since the last meeting of conference. This was made possible by the cooperation of the Life Insurance Company (The Jefferson Standard), one of the banks (The Wachovia) and the settlement by purchase of notes in liquidating banks. At no bank nor yet at the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company is there a single individual endorsing for the college or the Board of Education. Some laymen were obligated to the extent of $240,000; some preachers were endorsing for as much as $150,000. Thank God, nobody is endorsing for anything—and no one can even intimate that any danger besets their holdings because of the college.

3—To cancel the bond issue and free the Children's Home from liability because of the bonds. This is what we are now working on.

Our debt to the Insurance Company, including the $10,000 recently borrowed to make the necessary additions to Women's Hall, totals $110,000. The company has agreed to cooperate with us in getting in the bonds, to some financial extent, and to take a first mortgage on the college property and cancel all bonds when they are gotten in, which will free the Home. Now we have between $45,000 and $50,000 of bonds out, of which $20,000 to $25,000 are with individuals. We are going to ask all the bond-holders wherever possible to donate these to the college; if they cannot donate them outright, then to make a substantial contribution in settlement. These bonds are about equally divided between Methodist Protestant folks and citizens of High Point outside of our denomination. The thing to be remembered is that when you make such a donation or settlement you are helping both the Children's Home and the College—both the children of this conference, and both institutions have added to the prestige and service of this conference in the state.

I desire to request the conference to appoint P. E. Lindley, P. S. Kennett and N. M. Harrison for work with the college.

The following were elected to serve as Trustees of the College till 1941; Rev. J. C. Auman, C. F. Finch, W. L. Ward, H. A. Millis and G. H. Kearns. Mr. Ward later resigned and the vacancy was filled by the election of Mr. B. K. Millaway. Mr. Charles F. Finch, a member of the Board of Trustees, has passed away since the annual meeting of the Board. The vacancy caused by Mr. Finch's death will be filled at the Board meeting this month. We request your confirmation of these as selected.

Yesterday this conference approved the report of the committee on Fellowship-Crusade. It is gratifying that the report was adopted with a measure of acclaim and in a spirit that gives promise for the realization of the objectives. A part of that report set up the raising of $15,000 a year for 2 years for High Point College. This ought to be done and I trust will be. I pledge this conference that if the church will raise at least this amount each year for 2 years, I will do my best to secure a similar amount from friends of the college in High Point—I believe I can do it. This would mean $60,000 in the next 2 years—and $60,000 will bring the debt down to practically the first mortgage held by the insurance company. What a relief this would be! And brethren I somehow believe that the Methodist Protestant Church in North Carolina will want to have the college in as fine condition, financially, as possible when we have Methodist Union. I know I do. We shall want to say, here is High Point College—a contribution of no small significance to the new day of Methodism.

Folks have said to me, "What is going to happen to the college when Union comes?" What is going to happen?—Why the only thing that is going to happen to High Point College is—that it will go on growing and serving; with an enlarged Methodist backing and a larger field from which to draw. We will not know any difference as to its being a church college because it will be known as a Methodist College rather than a Methodist Protestant College. Some have said, "do you suppose when Union comes that the college will be closed?" Why should it be? High Point College has the location and the opportunity and the vitality—and Methodism is not accustomed to trying to do despite to such. The passing years will bring a joy and justifiable pride to all Methodist Protestants for having put this institution into a United Methodism; and your children's children will look back through the years and tell the story of its beginnings and its progress and rejoice that their forbears had a part therein. Personally, if I can make some small contribution to such an institution for such a Methodism—I shall be satisfied and grateful that such was my privilege. Such an end is a challenge to us all and I ask, today, that we shall, in the next eighteen months, answer that challenge with a spirit and a sharing that will demonstrate a Fellowship which will bring to our closing days as a denomination the greatest possible joy and satisfaction in such service to Our Lord and Our Youth.

The Bequest of Mrs. S. V. Pickens, in accordance with the terms of her will, was $1,000, but in sending me the above amount, the Honorable Michael Schenck, one of the executors, wrote: "Owing to loses in bank failures and otherwise, there are not sufficient funds to pay in full the legacies contained in the Will. The pro rata share of the legacy to the Methodist Protestant Church is $312.12, check for which I enclose herewith." The Will specifies that the money is to aid young men in preparing for the ministry, and states that the bequest is made because the Testator believes that her husband would have desired that she do so.

The balance due on the Pearson Street property, secured by mortgage, is $1,040. It was originally $2,000. The indebtedness was incurred in making extensive repairs and improvements, with the expectation of securing a much larger rental than we have been able to realize.

(V) PARSONAGE COMMITTEE

The North Carolina Conference has made a fine record in recent years in the erection of new parsonages and in repairing old ones. Every charge should have a comfortable and attractive home for the pastor, conveniently located in respect to church and school.

We recommend:

1. That every charge that does not have a parsonage take steps to secure one as early as possible.

2. That all parsonages be furnished throughout with modern furniture.

3. That our pastors and their families be urged to take the very best care possible of the parsonages and grounds.

R. A. HUNTER,
R. T. SIDES.

(W) RURAL CHURCH

Just as a true teacher is interested in following up his students in their work after school days so the Committee on Rural Church has been interested in observing whether or not the rural church leaders have been using the suggestions offered by this committee during the past few years, and whether or not the rural church is really making any progress toward better and more adequately meeting the needs of the present day.

The Committee believes, because of the information which it has secured through personal observation, and through reports from various pastors and people and also from the President of the Annual Conference, who has visited each of the churches in the Conference, that the rural church is moving forward.

There seems to have been an increased interest, during the past year, in church beautification and improvement. Many markers or signs, have been erected, while many churches have set shrubbery and improved the grounds. A number of churches have been painted and repaired, while some have made alterations which have greatly improved the looks as well as increased the service of the same. It is also noticeable that pastors and people are beginning to demand and use a more systematic and better planned worship program. These improvements carry with them a spiritual value as well as a material one and this committee commends all pastors and people who have made improvements in the rural church during the past year.

The Committee has found, in most cases, where ministers and churches have experimented with the suggestion of having two morning appointments instead of one in the morning and another in the afternoon that the experiment has proved favorable. We, therefore, recommend this arrangement to other ministers and churches where distance will permit.

But, while the Committee realizes that progress is being made, it also realizes that there is much room for further improvement. It, therefore, offers the following suggestions with the hope that they may aid in the improvement of both the physical structure and the worship service:

Most of our churches should be more careful to see that the present structure is kept clean and dusted, as well as repaired and painted, with window panes in the windows. The leaders and members of the rural church should continue to try to make the church the most attractive place in the community. There seems to be no good reason why this could not and should not be done.

While we are improving and beautifying the church we must not forget and improve only the outside, lest we be classed with the Pharisees. It is time for us to take steps toward beautifying, and thereby, creating a more worshipful atmosphere on the inside of our churches. Some one has said, "A poor teacher spoils a good lesson." (Both lesson and teacher may be spoiled by a poor place to teach.) Religious Education In the Rural Church, P. 117. Henry W. McLaughlin, Editor. Dr. Lindley says in Human Nature And The Church, P. 62, "If the church would invest more in beautification it would not need so many over-sized sermons," to keep the people interested and attending the church. Too often our churches have been characterized by their barrenness. We suggest, therefore, that the churches be painted inside, as well as outside, using the proper colors of paint for the same. Many of our churches could be improved by properly placing a number of religious paintings at various places in the auditorium. We suggest also that where churches have no altar that alterations be made, if at all possible, so as to erect an altar. This we suggest even if the pulpit has to be placed in a less conspicuous place.

The Committee is conscious of the need of a more adequate or better worship program in many of our churches. It offers, therefore, two orders of service for your consideration again this year.

Some one has said, "the man who reads is the man who leads," Realizing that many of our rural church leaders do not know where to find, nor the kind to find, reading material on the rural church we are listing four books, one of which has a fine Bibliography of rural church material, which deals specifically with the rural church and its problems.

"Religious Education in the Rural Church," by McLaughlin, (Fleming H. Revell Co., New York. Price $1.00.)

"Rebuilding Rural America," by Mark A. Dawbar. (Friendship Press, New York. Price 60¢) (Bibliography)

"The Country Church And Public Affairs," by McLaughlin. (The Macmillan Company, New York. Price 60¢)

"By The Waters Of Bethesda," by J. M. Ormond. ((Board of Missions, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Nashville, Tenn. Price 25¢)

The Committee also suggests that ministers and rural church leaders may find it very helpful and informing to attend the Rural Church Institute held each year at Duke University in connection with the Methodist pastor's school and the Peace Institute. The cost of which has been one dollar plus board.

(Y) BOUNDARY COMMITTEE

The Boundary Committee would make the following recommendations:

We concur in the action of Halifax Charge in declaring Harmony Church extinct, and recommend the dropping of that church from the roll of the charge.

That Melton's Grove be detached from Rockingham Charge and same be made a station, and that the Stationing Committee ask that it be supplied from the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Mt. Gilead, if satisfactory arrangements can be made.

That Bess' Chapel be attached to Lincolnton the same to be known as Lincolnton-Bess Chapel, and that Bessemer City Church be attached to Shelby-Caroleen:

That Bethesda be detached from State Street Charge, and same be attached to North Davidson, and that West Thomasville be detached from North Davidson and attached to State Street.

That Union Grove be detached from Mocksville Charge, and same be known as Union Grove Station.

(Z) MISSIONS

Your Committee on Missions would call the members of this Conference to an attitude of grave concern for the welfare of the men and women who are serving the church in the Orient today. The war that is raging between China and Japan has not only created a situation in which missionary procedure is uncertain but it has thrown into jeopardy the life and property of these who serve as missionaries in that part of the world. We would pray God's protection for them. At the same time, however, we would approve the action taken by many of the Missionary Boards to the effect that we, the Christian people of America will not allow the loss of personnel or property in the foreign field to be used as a cause for war.

The danger of world conflict growing out of the far eastern situation calls to our attention the closeness with which the people of the world are united. No people or group of people can ive unto themselves. A world culture is emerging which binds the nations of the world together. It is evident that a world religion is necessary to meet the needs thereof. We believe that religion should be and is Christian which among all the religions of the world today has the vitality and genius of faith sufficient to bring under control the forces that threaten to destroy civilization. The fight is not between Christianity and other religions, but between Christianity and no religion. Thus we believe that there is greater need for missionary zeal and effort today than ever before; not the type of religious zeal that makes one intolerant of those who differ with him but the type of zeal that leads one to join hands with the religious forces of every culture regardless of the name by which they may be called in an effort to build a world in the likeness of the ideals set by Jesus Christ.

Though offerings to World Service by the churches of this conference are gradually increasing—and we especially commend our Ladies' organizations in this—still we believe that they are proportionately far too small. This indicates an indifference on the part of the local church to world needs, and it also betrays a spirit of selfishness which is entirely foreign to the giving spirit of Christ. If our collections to this cause are to be boosted your committee believes that a more intensive program of missionary education must be carried on by the local church. The extensive use of our publications—the Missionary Record, the Methodist Protestant-Recorder and Herald—, the observance of the special days, and the program carried on by the Auxiliaries are essential. The use of missionary pageants and picture slides may be very effective. We believe furthermore that every pastor sometime during the church year should preach a series of informational sermons on this subject or should conduct a study of foreign conditions and needs which is designed to reach a large part of this membership.

In addition to raising the apportionment to World Service if any church wishes to do something specific for this cause the plan of giving scholarships either in America or in the foreign lands as sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary is very practical.

As the people of this Conference proceed with the Fellowship Crusade may they be conscious of a fellowship which transcends all national boundaries and may they realize that they are crusading for Christ not only in America but in every part of the world.

Respectfully submitted, J. C. MADISON, Chairman
MISS HAZEL HENDRIX, Secretary

(BB) DIRECTORS OF THE SEMINARY EXTENSION SCHOOL

The school was held this year, June 14-26.

Dr. C. E. Forlines and Dr. M. J. Shroyer were the instructors for the Seminary.

The total enrollment was 26. Of this number 13 took the course for credits. The other ministers attended the lecture course and sat in on classes, though not for credits.

A two-day lecture course was run in connection with the school. It was very well attended, and was enjoyed by the brethren.

The college made a very cheap rate of $6.50 for board and room.

The cost of the school, as regards the Seminary and lecture course, was $130.00.

The Seminary was paid $125.00. One lecturer was paid $5.00 to cover traveling expenses.

The balance in the treasury is $2.50.

The money used in financing the school came from three sources, as follows:

$100 was paid through private subscriptions made at the Albemarle Conference. $19.50 came through tuition fees paid by men who took class work for credits. $13.00 was received as registration fees by those who attended lectures and classes, but who were not working for credits.

Your directors submit for your consideration the following recommendations:

(1) That the school be held this year at a date to be agreed upon by the Seminary and the Directors, and that it be held at High Point College, through agreement with the President of the Institution.

(2) That a lecture course, running through four or five days, be provided as a part of the curriculum.

(3) That a Board of Directors for the purpose of operating the school be continued, and that they be elected by the Conference, as heretofore.

(CC) REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL OBJECTIVES IN THE FELLOWSHIP CRUSADE

The Committee set up by the Annual Conference to formulate plans for reaching financial goals in the Fellowship Crusade, make the following recommendations:

1. That Dr. R. M. Andrews be elected Editor of the Herald and Director of the Fellowship Crusade.

2. That the salary of the Editor of the Herald and the Director of the Crusade be $1,800 for the conference year, and that a home be furnished him.

3. That $800 of this salary be paid out of the income of the Methodist Protestant Herald.

4. That the remainder of the salary ($1,000), together with the rent of the house, and expenses not to exceed $500, shall be paid out of the gross receipts of the Crusade. The balance of the monies remaining shall be divided between the interests represented in the Crusade on the following basis, namely: Fellowship Crusade of General Conference, $8,000, Annual Conference $7,000, and High Point College $15,000, or pro-rated if the net receipts are not sufficient to appropriate the foregoing amounts. It being understood that the North Carolina Annual Conference, the Methodist Protestant Herald and High Point College shall be responsible for providing the expenses of the campaign needed before the returns of the Crusade are available.

5. That all monies raised for the Crusade be sent direct to the Treasurer of the North Carolina Annual Conference so designated, and that the Editor of the Herald and the Director of the Fellowship Crusade be paid monthly so far as it is possible.

(DD) PASTORAL WORK

There are many vocations and fields of labor through which much good is accomplished. However, there is no greater vocation or field of service than that of a Christian minister. He should not overlook the fact that he is called of God to deliver God's message. There is no higher calling than to be called to the Christian ministry and one should treasure his calling as one would treasure "a pearl of great price." All of the minister's life should be in keeping with his calling because he is called of God.

Would it not be well for the minister to ask himself if the message he is about to deliver is God's Message?

No minister preaches a greater sermon than the life he lives. Men forget sermons and lectures, but they never forget great personalities. "Watch yourself and watch your teaching; stick to your work; if you do that, you will save your hearers as well as yourself." (I Tim. 4:16, Moffat). "Whatever happens, be self-possessed, flinch from no suffering, do your work as an evangelist, and discharge all your duties as a minister." (II Tim. 4:4, Moffat).

The pastor is a spiritual leader in his parish, and cannot lead others to a rich experience and a deep spiritual feeling unless he himself can speak from experience. A witness is one who knows from first hand knowledge. "Ye are witnesses of these things." There is a place for the pastor to be a spiritual advisor. He should be one to whom the people can go for spiritual advice and counsel. He should be of such character that his members may take him into full confidence. No greater honor can be bestowed upon an individual than for him to have the confidence of a boy or of youth.

"A good shepherd," says a well-rounded minister, "is one who will give much attention to the sick, the shut-ins, the aged and the needy." "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, to visit the fatherless and the widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world."

The pastor who is successful will not overlook his study. He is a preacher. To preach calls for much time to be spent in the preparation of sermons. The pastor lives a busy life, and there is a danger of overlooking his study and spiritual development. Shall it be said of any minister that he told others how to live, but he himself knew not how to live? Sermons are not made without prayer, meditation, much study, and a thoughtful consideration of the people in the parish. St. Paul said to Timothy, "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." He should not overlook the fact that he is to preach God's word. Nothing has ever taken the place of the inspired word, of The Holy Bible. In it is much sermon material for the minister, but the inspired Book of Books is not only material but an inspiration to lead one to a deeper spiritual life, and a fellowship with things which are holy.

Your Committee recommends two books on pastoral work: "The Minister, His World and His Work"—Wm. Adams Brown, and "The Business Administration of a Church"—Robert Cashman.

The Christian minister is more than a social worker, as important as that is. If social service were removed from Christianity, the Christian religion would not be complete. Ministering to the physical needs of the people is a Christ-like act, but the minister must not forget that he is to lead men to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ and to an acceptance of Him who gave Himself for others. If the minister fails to lead men to the surrender of themselves to God, he has not reached his goal as a pastor.

The pastor is not only a steward of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, but he is a steward of his income. His salary should be spent wisely. He is an example in the community in which he lives, and he is to be a steward of his time as well as that of his money. Would it not be well for all ministers to use their time that it would be said of them, "he spent his time well."

The minister should spend enough time at home that his members may have a change to call on their pastor from time to time. If and when they call at the parsonage, they should find a well ordered preacher's family.

"Ths permanent function of a pastor is preaching, its supreme aim is perfect manhood in Jesus Christ, its ruling spirit is love. Is love my ruling spirit in the preparation of this sermon? Love for God whom I preach, love for the souls to whom I preach, love for the Christ whom I preach, and love for the truth as it is given me to preach? Its subject matter is the word of God, its permanent preaching Christ, its central theme is Christ crucified, its eternal sanction-everlasting-and its co-operating agent the Holy Spirit." (Johnson's Ideal Ministry).

(FF) CHURCH MUSIC

We realize that music is one of the most important assets to a religious service, and that it offers an opportunity for more people to enter into the spirit of worship than in any other part of the service. Also, that the right kind of singing prepares the heart for the reception of the message that follows, and that it is or should be the gospel in song which appeals to the heart and head instead of the feet. Realizing this, we believe that many a soul who had caught a new vision, had a new lease on life, and were inspired to live better, have lost it by the singing of some jazz song after the sermon. Congregations do not leave with a feeling that they have been in the presence of God, but with a feeling that they have been to a show. Instead of being helped, they have been entertained.

Your committee feels that the use of cheap jazz in our church should be discouraged.

While progress has been made in using better song books, yet we see room for improvement. We therefore recommend, first of all, that our churches use the "Methodist Hymnal." If this is not possible, we would like to offer the following suggestions: "Hymns of Praise," "Cokesbury Hymnal," "Devotional Hymns."

Second, that the pastor, through cooperation with the chair director or pianist, select the hymns which are most in harmony with his subject.

Third, that each church be urged to furnish enough song books so each person may have access to one.

Fourth, realizing the fact that so few people sing, we would urge that each church encourage singing by employing a competent music teacher to teach the children music. This might be done by working in a public school music teacher. Knowing the very great need, power and inspiration of congregational singing and its value to the service and the enjoyment it gives to everyone, we think that greater emphasis should be placed upon it.

Lastly, that the North Carolina Conference Council of Religious Education continue its efforts to promote better church music.

(II) SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE McCULLOCH MEMORIAL FUND

At the last session of the Annual Conference, Mr. J. D. Ross of Asheboro, appeared before the Conference to make a proposition with regard to collecting the balance due on the McCulloch Fund. Due to unavoidable conditions little was done toward meeting the terms of his offer. He agrees to renew his proposition: namely, that a special effort be made to raise the amount still due from the churches and charges which have not contributed, through the appointment of committees raised for the purpose. He agrees to attempt to raise whatever balance may still be due when it is apparent no further funds may be expected, so that the matter will be closed between now and the sitting of the next Annual Conference.

This generous offer on the part of Brother Ross ought to be a challenge to our churches which have not contributed to this Fund, or have not completed raising the apportionment assigned them, to do their utmost that he may be called upon to make as little sacrifice as may be in the completion of the Fund.

The balance is only $484.00. Many churches have made no contribution to the Fund. The amount is certainly within the easy reach of those churches which have paid little or nothing. It is our earnest hope that we may have a contribution from every church in the Conference before the Fund is completed so that the churches will have entered upon the effort 100%. "All of thhe churches of the Conference having a share in the raising of the McCulloch Fund." Let that be the motto, until the task is finished.

C. W. BATES,
J. T. BOWMAN,
H. F. SURRATT.

(JJ) COMMITTEE ON ORDINANCES

There is a noticeable indifference in many of our churches in observing the ordinance of the Lord's Supper. In some churches it is observed irregularly and in some not at all. The indifference on the part of some of our churches may be due to the lack of proper instruction, especially among our young people.

The Discipline provides that this ordinance be observed quarterly on circuits and monthly in stations.

We recommend that all pastors set a definite time to comply with the Discipline in regard to this ordinance and that a suitable sermon or program be prepared for this occasion.

Our denomination accepts water baptism by the mode of sprinkling, pouring, or immersion; and since water baptism is not essential to salvation but is only an outward symbol of an inward cleansing, we disapprove of rebaptism.

J. R. ANDERSON, Chairman,
J. F. JOBE, Secretary.

(KK) OAK RIDGE CHURCH

Your Committee appointed some years ago to negotiate a settlement regarding an equity that we have in the Community Church of Oak Ridge has worked consistently at the matter, but complications have hindered our progress.

We are now ready to report that the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which now owns the property, recognizes the justice of our claim and assumes responsibility for settlement with us.

At the recent Western North Carolina Conference our claim was referred to the Board of Church Extension, and your Committee is informed that the Board agreed to pay us $900 in three equal annual installments, the first payment to be made at once.

Your Committee recommends that we settle on these terms.

Your Committee further recommends that the Committee now be discharged, and that any further details connected with the matter be handled by the President of the Conference and the Kernersville Charge.

S. W. TAYLOR,
G. R. BROWN,
J. E. PRITCHARD.

(LL) COMMITTEE ON METHODIST PROTESTANT-RECORDER

The North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church has ordered the set-up of the Fellowship Crusade. This Fellowship Crusade has three phases: First, that which deals with the quickening of the spiritual life, or evangelism. Second, that which emphasizes literature—the church periodicals—Methodist Protestant-Recorder, and Methodist Protestant Herald. Third, that which has to do with financial support. It is with the second phase of this Fellowship Crusade that your Committee has to deal, and, more specifically, with the Methodist Protestant-Recorder.

The importance of good literature is of inestimable value. In order to be properly prepared to carry on the work of the church efficiently and effectively we must be informed as to the needs and movements of our denominational work. The Methodist Protestant-Recorder is the one religious journal that gives us what is happening throughout the entire church. The Methodist Protestant-Recorder is the General Conference organ for creating a denominational consciousness and for cementing the several annual conferences into a unity. The paper contains valuable information which might be helpful in carrying on the Sunday School and Christian Endeavor work. Likewise, other suggestions for Christian living are featured in this church paper.

Your Committee respectfully suggests the following line of procedure in an effort to assist our ministers and membership of the North Carolina Conference in carrying out the spirit of the Fellowship Crusade:

(1) That all pastors be urged to become subscribers to the Methodist Protestant-Recorder and to allow the paper to become one of their working tools. For how can the minister become adequately informed of denominational activities without taking this paper?

(2) That all church officials be urged to take the Methodist Protestant-Recorder in order that they may be enlightened as to the efforts of the General Church. For how can leaders expect others to give support when they are not capable of wise leadership?

(3) That all who can show their loyalty to the church by supporting the whole program of the church and especially the efforts set forth in the Fellowship Crusade.

THE COMMITTEE,
H. FREO SURRATT, Chairman.

(MM) COMMITTEE ON OFFICIAL CHARACTER

We your Committee on Official Character submit the following report:

We recommend that the Official Character of all ministers and all preachers of the Conference be passed.

T. M. JOHNSON, Chairman,
J. D. WILLIAMS.

(NN) REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE FACULTY

Joseph Fillmore Coble and Forrest Strader Wagoner having completed the Seminary course and having fulfilled the Disciplinary requirements are recommended for ordination.

W. J. Neese, F. A. Wright, C. P. Morris, O. L. Easter, A. M. Smith, R. E. L. Moser, Leo Pittard, Herman Yokeley, E. P. Hamilton, G. G. Holt, S. G. Feree and W. C. Clark are recommended to the President for work if needed.

That T. E. Strickland be admitted to the Conference Course and is recommended to be given work if needed.

T. H. Vickery is recommended to continue his College work and in case he is needed be employed as Supply Pastor.

The following men have passed: W. C. Clark in Old Testament History, Discipline, Minister's Week-Day Challenge, and Christian Message and Program; E. P. Hamilton in Personal Salvation and Discipline and R. E. L. Moser in Personal Salvation and Discipline.

J. F. Cagle is recommended to continue his college work and in case he is needed be employed as Supply Pastor.

We recommend that J. E. Carroll prepare a statement of the requirements for entrance into the Conference Course and the relationship to the Conference and that this be placed in the Journal.

E. P. Hamilton and R. E. L. Moser have passed in Robert's Rules of Order.

E. P. Hamilton passed on "Objectives in Religious Education."

E. P. Hamilton, R. E. L. Moser, Herman Yokeley passed on "Principles of Preaching."

S. W. TAYLOR, Chairman,
H. FREO SURRATT, Secretary.

(OO) SOCIAL SERVICE

In considering the social issues that confront our day we can see signs that encourage and others that give us genuine concern. There seems to be an awakening consciousness on the part of leaders everywhere to the need of a program of development that will insure a more abundant life for everyone. There is manifested an increased interest in the physical, material. intellectual and spiritual needs of individuals generally. Governments, local and national, and other agencies have assisted the church in meeting these needs, though, in some instances, the good has been attended by evil. We cite one instance: In order that we might have more means to relieve economic distress we have revived the sale of alcohol for revenue, thus entrenching once more that enemy of all ages. Again the Christian forces of this country must renew their efforts to outlaw and exterminate this destroyer of homes and human personality.

War is raging in two countries. Rumors of war are afloat on every front. Every effort should be exerted to stop this useless waste of manhood and materials.

There has apparently been an improvement in the type of pictures presented by the motion picture industry but there is yet need for more improvement. We deplore the practice of bank night which has recently sprung up. Technically speaking, it may not be a form of gambling, but it does stimulate an interest in taking a chance which may possibly lead to the practice of gambling, which should not be indulged in nor tolerated by Christians.

Some means should be sought to check the promiscuous and attractive advertisement of liquor, tobacco and other things of evil nature. Newspapers, magazines, and the radio are the chief offenders.

Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy—is a lesson our age needs to learn. Desecration and commercialism of this day as we have it surely cannot please our Heavenly Father.

Child labor that exploits and retards the growth of children should be of concern to everyone interested in the welfare of the future generation.

Christians should not indulge in any activities that may be of questionable nature, such as dancing, card playing, and beer parties.

We have only touched some of the outstanding evils of our day. For a solution of these evils we know no better source than the life and teachings of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Only by living and teaching these principles, can we hope to eradicate these evils and develop a society fit for the Kingdom of God.

The Committee,
EUGENE A. LAMB, Chairman

(PP) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Your Committee on Religious Education is of the unanimous opinion that since the work of this Committee is largely duplicated by the Committee on Christian Education, there is no real justifications for its existence, and therefore recommend that it be dropped from the list of Standing Committees.

J. CLYDE AUMAN, Chairman.

(QQ) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL RELATIONS

We, your Committee on Fraternal Relations, respectfully submit the following report:

1. The sincere gratitude and deep appreciation of every member of and visitor to this Annual Conference are expressed to Dr. S.

W. Taylor, pastor and host, to the members of Central Methodist Protestant Church, to Brother C. E. Bulla, chief usher, to Brother J. D. Ross, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, and to the people of Asheboro for their unbounded hospitality and generous entertainment during our very pleasant sojourn in this fair city. Also appreciation is expressed to Rev. M. C. Henderson, pastor of Richland Charge, and to Rev. J. B. Trogdon, pastor of Randleman Charge, and their members, for valuable assistance in the entertainment of the Conference members and visitors.

2. We acknowledge with gratitude the courtesy extended by pastors of churches in Asheboro and other places for opening their churches to ministers of this Conference for their Sunday services.

3. We desire to convey our sincere thanks to the women of this church for the splendid meals served in the basement of the church during the sessions of the Conference. This convenience was deeply appreciated.

4. For the generous space given to reports of the proceedings of this Conference by the city and state newspapers we desire to acknowledge our sincere appreciation.

5. This Conference has been pleased and honored with the presence of representatives of the General Conference, and we desire to express to each of them our appreciation for the splendid address they brought to us during the sessions. (RR) REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON METHODIST PROTESTANT HERALD

The Methodist Protestant Herald has had a very successful year, for which we are very thankful. It is very gratifying that more of our people are reading and appreciating the paper. We consider the Herald an essential agency in the promotion of the interests of our Conference and the institutions of our church.

We are profoundly grateful to Dr. R. M. Andrews, for his splendid work during the past year, and the very efficient manner in which he has managed the paper. We also express our appreciation to Dr. N. G. Bethea and Rev. J. E. Carroll for their assistance.

We heartily commend those charges which have raised their apportionment for the McCulloch Memorial Fund, the Herald Subsidy and subscription quotas. The pastors and the Herald agents on the various charges deserve much praise for their efforts to increase the circulation of the paper.

The Committee makes the following recommendations:

1. That Dr. R. M. Andrews be the Editor and Business Manager for the ensuing year.

2. That his salary be fixed at $1,800.00 and house rent.

3. That out of the cash balance now on hand, $100.00 be given to Dr. R. M. Andrews for the editorial expenses of the past year. That Dr. N. G. Bethea be given $25.00, and Rev. J. E. Carroll be given $50.00 for their assistance.

4. That $800.00 of the net proceeds of the income from the Herald be applied on his (R. M. Andrews, editor) salary for the ensuing year, looking to the "Fellowship Crusade" Committee to provide the remainder.

5. That the Subsidy be apportioned to the various organizations as follows: Women's Work $100.00; Children's Home $100.00; Council of Religious Education $50.00; Annual Conference $200.00; and the basis of apportionment for subsidy and subscription quotas for the various charges be the same as last year.

6. That the Herald Subscription Committee, composed of Dr. C. W. Bates, Dr. N. G. Bethea, and P. R. Stout be continued.

7. That an every-family canvass in every church be made by the Herald Agent and pastor with the purpose of placing the Herald in every Methodist Protestant home. We endorse the club system plan where it is deemed workable.

8. That the subsidy and subscription quota be included as items on the Honor Roll.

Respectfully submitted,

T. G. MADISON, Chairman
FRED R. LOVE, Secretary

(TT) REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

The church must be evangelistic, or be utterly false to her Commission. It is by no means sufficient to give a week, ten days or two weeks to an evangelistic effort. A sincere, sane evangelistic effort should be the major emphasis in the church's program during the entire year. A year-round program of evangelism is the standard for every church. This program should never be secondary.

Your Committee on Evangelism would have us keep ever fresh in our minds the items included in a program of evangelism as set forth in the report of last year, namely, Winning souls for Christ; the Christian nurture and development of the life which has been won for Christ, and the life which has been won for Christ and is being nurtured in the Christian way of life definitely enlisted in Christ's service.

These are days when people go to extreme. There are leftists and rightists. These two groups are found in the church. There is the cold, formal intellectual type. There is the noisy, extremely emotional, showy type. The first needs to have a heart-warming experience, to bring sane emotionalism back into their religious experiences. If this were done there would not be so many tabernacles with their various isms springing up over the land. The second type needs to learn how to do things decently and in order, without confusion and show. If this were done the Christian religion would make a conquering appeal to some who are now disgusted with religion because of the noise and show some people make. Your Committee is pleading that we walk in the middle of the road. Let us witness, let us testify to the saving and redeeming power of Christ appealingly and beautifully.

Jesus had a holy passion for the lost. "There were ninety and nine that safely lay in the shelter of the fold. But one was out on the hills away, Far off from the gates of Gold—Away on the mountains wild and bare, Away from the tender Shepherd's care. 'Lord, whence are those blood-drops all the way that mark out the mountain's track?' 'They were shed for one who had gone astray Ere the Shepherd could bring him back.' 'Lord whence are Thy hands so rent and torn? They are pierced tonight by many a thorn.' "

Jesus set the example for us. Do we possess a passion for the lost like unto His? Are we so busy raising the budget, oiling the machinery, keeping church property in repair, holding committee meetings that we have little time to seek the lost? It is to be feared, brethren, that we have lost our passion. A mother came to her pastor at the close of the morning worship service and said, "I spent all last night in prayer and tears for my boy." Another mother in her agonizing prayer for the salvation of her boy is saying, "O God, I will burn in hell forever if you will only let my boy off." Still another mother in a testimony meeting is saying, "When I get to heaven and in due time my boy doesn't come all the angels of heaven can't keep me out of the outer darkness until I find my boy." Oh, that such passion for lost souls would possess us all!

Your Committee is suggesting that a study course in evangelism be conducted in every church or charge during the conference year. Of course, such a study will deal more or less with technique and method. But we need to know how to approach and converse with people about the salvation of their immortal souls. Many do not do it because they do not know how. While these study groups will be dealing with methods, yet these very groups may become an upper room and in the power of the Spirit the members of the group go out as did the followers of Christ on the day of Pentecost. No doubt the pastor will conduct these study groups and to aid him in this work we are suggesting the following books and pamphlets:

Aggressive Evangelism—by Hanes
Are You an Evangelist—by Hughes
Achieving Christian Character—McLester
Great Sermons on Evangelism—Kernahan
Evangelism and Present World Order—Brewbaker
Manual on Personal Evangelism—Dean
History of American Revivials—Beardsley
Evangelism—Biederwolf
The Great Evangel—Hough
Evangelism in a Changing World—Bailey
Evangelism in the Sunday School—Chappell
Great Revivials and the Great Republic—Candler
Educational Evangelism—McKinley
Every Minister His Own Evangelist—Work
Studies for Personal Workers—Johnston
Present-Day Evangelism—Chapman

The Fellowship Crusade will be presented to this Conference for action. This Crusade is divided into three parts. Your Committee on Evangelism has been asked to bring to this Conference suggestions which have to do with the first part; namely, the deepening of the spiritual life of our people. This item is first in the Crusade. It is properly placed. E. Stanley Jones has correctly said, "We can't go further until we go deeper." We must do deeper in consecration. in loyalty, faithfulness and deeper in fellowship with God. Brethren of the ministry, let us take the lead in this matter. Do we as spiritual leaders always live close to the heart of God? Are we daily climbing to higher heights in our Christian experience, or do our people look upon us and find no inspiration to seek closer fellowship with God? It was said of one minister, "It's as good as a sermon just to see him walk into the pulpit." The minister should ever live so close to the heart of God that wherever he is, whenever people behold him, they will see a life radiant with the glory of God and aglow with the beauty of Christ. First, then, we are calling every minister to a renewed consecration of life and a deeper fellowship with God.

In the second place, we would call all of our people to join us in a daily, faithful observance of a quiet hour—a time for Bible study, prayer and meditation. We must put such a time in our daily schedule. It may be that we will have to rise a bit earlier, but with the coming of each new day our first contact should be with God so that we may go into the tasks of the day with the assurance that He is our Heavenly Father, that we are objects of His love and that our lives are undergirded with His power.

I met God in the morning,
When the day was at its best
And His presence came like sunshine,
Like a glory in my breast.

All day long the presence lingered;
All day long He stayed with me;
And we sailed in perfect calmness
O'er a very troubled sea.

Other ships were blown and battered,
Other ships were sore distressed,
But the winds that seemed to drive them
Brought to us a peace and rest.

Then I thought of other mornings
With a keen remorse of mind,
When I too had loosed the moorings
With the presence left behind.

So I think I know the secret
Learned from many a troubled way;
You must seek Him in the morning
If you want Him through the day.

—Ralph S. Cushman

In the third place, we are suggesting that a family altar be conducted in each home. There are many difficulties in the way, but "where there is a will there is a way." If the people need help the following are most beneficial and inspiring: "God's Minute"; "God's Message"; "The Upper Room"; "Victorious Living," by E. Stanley Jones; "The Daily Altar," by Willett and Morrison, and the "Book of Daily Devotions," by Clark and Cram. A house is built on the banks of a stream. It is symbolic of thousands of homes in America. Apparently it seems to be safe. But let us analyze the water in the stream. We find that it contains deadly poisons. These poisons—the divorce evil, irreverence, lack of spirituality, no time for Bible study and prayer—are eating away at the bank upon which the house rests. There must be a crash unless something is done. A family altar is of indescribable value to the safety and godliness of our homes.

Lastly we are suggesting that study groups be conducted for the sole purpose of deepening the spiritual life of our pepole. Group meeting to sing, to pray, to witness, to study the Christian way of life. The Bible is the supreme Book here. Other books such as "Victorious Living" by E. Stanley Jones; "Practicing the Presence" by Ralph S. Cushman, and many others may be successfully used.

The Kingdom of God comes slowly not so much because of the plots and plans of devils, but because of the blunders, hypocricies and indifference of those who profess Christ, but do not possess Him. When pastor and people are so consecrated to Christ that their lives are radiant with the glory of God, that in their conduct and character the beauty of Jesus may be seen; that they do not compromise nor look with favor upon sin, that they are Christians first in politics, social circles, business and all relationships of life,—then the sinner will be crying, "What must I do to be saved?" And the kingdoms of this world shall rapidly become the kingdom of our Lord and His Christ.

RESOLUTIONS

RESOLUTION

The North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church affirms its interest in the North Carolina Council of Churches, and wishes to participate in its efforts to coordinate the work of the various denominations in the state, and further, since the Council is not supported as yet by any of its constituent bodies, we commend it to Methodist Protestant individuals and churches for for their voluntary gifts.

IN APPRECIATION

There is a man among us who has rendered outstanding service to the Kingdom of God through the Methodist Protestant Church in North Carolina. He has manifested capable Christian leadership. He has kept strong faith in the midst of hardships and difficulties. His enthusiasm has not waned in the presence of opposition and criticism. He has put his whole life and soul into the task which was his to perform. For several years he served in the pastorate. For six years he was president of High Point College and for two terms of five years each he served as president of our Annual Conference. That man is the Rev. R. M. Andrews, D.D. Dr. Andrews, we express to you our deep appreciation for the splendid service you have rendered. May our Heavenly Father continue to bless you with good health and strength, continually give you of His grace and guidance, and may you see many years yet in the active service of His Blessed Kingdom.

For the Conference,

F. W. PASCHALL

OBITUARIES

WILLIAM T. TOTTEN 1862-1936

The Reverend William T. Totten was born in Rockingham County, North Carolina, February 13, 1862. He departed this life November 26, 1936, in Yadkin College, North Carolina. His age was 74 years, 9 months and 13 days.

Brother Totten obtained his education by attending the public schools, Oak Ridge Institute, and graduated from Yadkin College with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He was the last of the ministers of the Methodist Protestant Church to obtain a degree from Yadkin College.

At the Annual Conference of 1885, Brother Totten was admitted to the Conference. He was ordained three years later in Henderson. For the ensuing half century he served the Kingdom faithfully, and was thus of great usefulness to the North Carolina Annual Conference. He was pastor of the following charges: Albemarle, Halifax, LaGrange, Mecklenburg, Greensville, Shiloh, Catawba, Mocksville, Union Grove, and Draper.

In 1898 he assumed the responsibility of running Yadkin College, thus becoming "Professor" Totten. For twenty-five years he conducted Yadkin Collegiate Institute, sending out hundreds of young men and women prepared to take their places in life or to enter institutions of higher learning. As a teacher, Professor Totten was inspiring and tireless in his efforts to enrich the intellects and enable the characters of those who came as students to his school.

After serious illness for several weeks, Professor Totten passed from his earthly pilgrimage to the city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. The funeral was held in the Yadkin College Methodist Protestant Church on the afternoon of November 28. Dr. S. W. Taylor was in charge of the service, and was assisted by the Reverend George L. Curry and the Reverend O. B. Mitchell. That which was mortal was laid by loving hands in the historic Yadkin cemetery to wait the fulness of God's promise to the faithful.

Brother Totten was thrice married. His first marriage was with Mrs. Nettie Barham-Daniel. To this union were born three children: Dr. H. R. Totten Chapel Hill, N. C.; Mrs. Frank Owen, Gibsonville, N .C.; Mr. John T. Totten, Statesville. He is also survived by a sister, Miss Cora Totten, and a brother, the Reverend J. Felix Totten. His last wife, Mrs. Ella Totten, of Halifax, Virginia, still survives. On September 1, 1925 he married Miss Callie Tarkington, of Chowan County, and a member of Rehoboth Church, one of the first churches served by Brother Totten. She died April 7, 1929. The third marriage was to Mrs. Ella Norman Cobb, who still survives. She, too, was a member of Rehoboth Church.

To those of us who knew this good man most intimately, there is a sense of great personal loss in his going. He was sunny and hopeful in disposition; intellectually alert and scholarly. He was positive and firm in will, yet without harshness or dogmatism. His love and affection were bestowed upon his family, and his friends were bound to him by strong ties of esteem, cordial interest and sympathy. We enterred his ashes, and God, on the bright loom of Summer, has woven for his grave a coverlet of grass. But in the many hearts he touched in church and school and home, the burial place of memory will often give up their dead, and he being dead, shall yet speak.

Who shall say how many hundreds have been made wiser, happier, better by those pursuits in which he taught men to engage? To how many the studies and beliefs that took their rise from him, have been wealth in poverty, liberty in bondage, health in sickness, society in solitude? Where religion consoles sorrow, assuages pain, brings gladness to eyes which fail with wakefulness and tears, and ache for the bright home and the long sleep—there is exhibited in the noblest form the immortal influence of the preacher of the Gospel of the Son of God. William T. Totten found a useful and valued place in the ministry of that Gospel.

REV. T. A. WILLIAMS

Rev. T. A. Williams was born in Orange County, North Carolina, August 16, 1872. He departed this life November 30, 1936; age 64 years. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams.

Brother Williams was married three times. His first marriage was to Miss Nettie Ray of Orange County. To this union was born one child, Mrs. Duce Bryan of Burlington. Later, he was married to Mrs. Winnie Matthews, of Littleton, N. C. They lived together just a short while, then she was called by death to join the innumerable host on the other side of the river. A few years later he was married to Miss Ola Stimpson of Yadkin County. To this happy union were born three children, Hazel and T. A., Jr., and one other, Audrey, who died 14 years ago at the age of 9 years.

He is survived by one son, T. A., Jr.; two daughters, Miss Hazel Williams and Mrs. Bryan of Burlington; four brothers, A. J. Wright, R. M. of Hillsboro, and D. R,. of Enfield; two sisters, Mrs. Emma Loyd of Hillsboro, and Mrs. Charles Thompson of Mebane, and his companion, Mrs. T. A. Williams of Burlington, to mourn their loss.

Brother Williams entered the work in 1907. He served the following charges: Bessemer City, Forsyth, Thomasville, First, Mocksville, Orange, Saxapahaw, Albemarle, Glen Raven, Randleman, Roberta, and Guilford.

Brother Williams first felt the call to preach in early manhood and could never get away from that call. At the age of twenty-one his father died, placing the responsibility of the home on his shoulders, but the call to preach still lingered with him. In his early thirties, he could no longer resist the call to preach and yielded his life to the great Head of the Church.

He begun his studies at home and in school in view of entering the ministry. He entered upon his work with an implicit faith in God, believing that He could take that feeble piece of clay and use it for His own glory; and He did it for he tried to serve Him faithfully.

Just twenty-five years ago this Conference, in the First Methodist Protestant Church in Burlington, Rev. T. A. Williams and your humble servant knelt around the altar and took the vows of this Conference to preach the Word, and he did it. He preached it fearlessly, faithfully, plainly, and forcefully. He preached it, not to please man but God, showing his consciousness of the fact that he would have to give an account of how he preached it.

Since our ordination, we were friends. We labored together in many revival meetings. I spent many weeks in his home and found him always to be interested in the Church and Kingdom; a Christian and a true friend.

On November 30, 1936, he gently wrapped the mantle of his couch about him and went to sleep saying "good night here and good morning there."

Your committee, together with this Conference and the family, can only bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father, for he will answer no more to the roll call here. His name has been transferred to the eternal conference above.

The funeral service was conducted from the First Methodist Protestant Church of Burlington by Rev. R. M. Andrews, D.D., W. F. Ashburn, and the writer. The body was laid to rest in the Burlington Cemetery.

MRS. G. L. REYNOLDS

A. Lelia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Peeler of Stanley County, was born August 12, 1879. In 1900 she was united in marriage to Rev. G. L. Reynolds, thus becoming the co-worker of one of the much loved and much respected ministers of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church. To this union were born three children whose lives today stand as a monument to the example and influence of a Christian home.

For the past sixteen years Rev. and Mrs. Reynolds with their family have been living in High Point where they have been very active in church and community life, the wife and family holding their memberships at the First Methodist Protestant Church there. The passing of Mrs. Reynolds, January 13, 1937, was an occasion for great sorrow not only for her immediate family but for the many friends of the church and community with whom she has so faithfully and loyally labored; and we should add, also, to the many friends throughout the Conference who have been inspired and comforted by the humble life of this Christian woman.

We have used the term "humble life" because we believe that this describes this good woman more than any other term. The simple, though great qualities of faith, hope and love seem to have been here in large portions. The kind welcome which she always extended to those who came into her home impressed visitors with the genuiness of her life. Her patience during an extended illness showed her as one who never gave up in the midst of battle and never lost her faith in God. She was the type of spirit moving among people that makes friends and acquaintances better for having known her. "Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth." We believe her to have been the type of person to whom a great inheritance belongs.

On January 15, funeral services were conducted for Mrs. Reynolds from the church to which she belonged by Rev. R. M. Andrews, Dr. George R. Brown, Dr. S. W. Taylor, and Rev. J. C. Madison, pastor of the church. Her body was laid to rest in the Oakwood Memorial Cemetery of High Point, but we know that her spirit is not buried there. In faith we believe that she is waiting, with that sweet patience characteristic of her life, for her husband, three children and many friends to join her in a world where physical suffering and broken friendships are never known.

MRS. W. C. KENNETT

Mary Coe Kennett, widow of Rev. W. C. Kennett. was born in Guilford County, North Carolina, on December 14th, 1846, and departed this life in Greensboro, North Carolina, September 23, 1937, her age being 90 years, nine months and nine days. The first half of her life was spent near Moriah Church near Greensboro. Here she professed saving faith in Jesus Christ and united with the church where she was a faithful worker for many years.

In January, 1892, she was united in marriage with Rev. W. C. Kennett who at that time was an itinerant minister in the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church. Immediately following their marriage they moved to Enfield, Brother Kennett being at that time pastor of Roanoke Circuit. For twelve years she was the wife of an itinerant minister, moving from place to place with her husband in the performance of his duties as a pastor. After the retirement of her husband from the active work in 1904, they moved to Liberty, where they lived until 1920 when they moved to Greensboro. Upon the death of her husband in 1925 Mrs. Kennett went to live with the family of Rev. T. F. McCulloch in Greensboro, Mrs. McCulloch being a sister of Mrs. Kennett. After the death of Mrs. McCulloch, three years ago, Mrs. Kennett continued to live in the McCulloch home until her death.

When Calvary Church was organized in 1924, Mrs. Kennett became a charter member. Her interest in the church's welfare was manifest to the time of her death. On account of the infirmities of the flesh, she was not able to attend church very often; but she sent her contribution regularly, and kept in close touch with the work of the church. Very few members kept themselves better informed in regard to the church's program than did she. She had a remarkable memory, and was well informed about the work of the general church. She knew so much history of the early days of the denomination, and was acquainted with so many of the leaders of the North Carolina Conference of a generation that is now past, as to be in demand for information by those who were interested in these things.

Until a few weeks before her death Mrs. Kennett's strength was remarkable for one of her age. But early in the summer her strength began to wane, and she grew gradually weaker until the end came. On the day of the morning of her passing, when her pastor visited her and prayed with her, asking that all needed grace be given her for the experience through which she was passing, she looked up into his face at the close of the prayer and said, "Thank you." In a few short hours she went to join her loved ones over on the other shore. Thus ended a life that was rich and full; one of holy influence and hallowed memories. Those who knew her will long remember her fine Christian character and her sweet and lovable disposition. A life like hers cannot easily be forgotten—it will live on in the lives of others.

The funeral services were held in Calvary Church Greensboro, at 3.00 o'clock, on Friday, September 24, and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. E. Pritchard, assisted by Rev. W. F. Ashburn. The body was then taken to Tabernacle Church, nine miles southeast of Greensboro, and was laid to rest beside that of her husband. As a climan to her beautiful life, even the day on which her funeral was held seemed to contribute its part; for as the body was being lowered into its final resting place, the sun was gently sinking in a gloriously beautiful setting. Thus ended a beautiful career and thus ended a beautiful day.

Mrs. Kennett is survived by two step-sons, Will Kennett, of Richmond, Virginia, and Ernest, of Chapel Hill, N. C,. and two-step-daughters, Mrs. Howard Fleming, of Middleburg, N. C., and Mrs. Mary Bliar, of Greensboro, N. C., and by six nieces, Mrs. H. A. Garrett, of Burlington; Mrs. J. Frank Coble, and the Misses Velna, Pearl, Mary Wills, and Sara McCulloch, of Greensboro.

MRS. A. L. HUNTER

Madora Florence Crews Hunter, daughter of the late Iverson and Emeline Crews, and beloved wife of Rev. A. L. Hunter, was born in Forsyth County, North Carolina, October 30, 1863, and fell asleep in Christ at the home near Pinnacle, North Carolina, November 12, 1936, her age being 73 years and 12 days. She was united in marriage to Rev. A. L. Hunter on December 23, 1886, this happy relationship continuing for almost fifty years.

Mrs. Hunter spent most of her married life in a Methodist Protestant parsonage, about twenty-five years being spent in the parsonage at Pinnacle, where her husband was pastor. In the language of her husband, "she was all that a wife could be"; and in the language of her children, "surely there was never a better mother." She was kind and gentle, and always considerate of the needs of others. She was a living example of what the grace of God can do for a human being. Being even tempered she weighed well her words and never spoke harshly to those about her. In fact, those who knew her best were those who loved and admired her most.

Although Mrs. Hunter reared a large family of children to manhood and womanhood, she found time to be a helpful neighbor and an efficient church worker. People were always delighted to have her in their homes for her presence was always a benediction. For years she was a teacher in the Sunday school, resigning from her class at Mt. Zion on account of her health just a short time before her death. She expressed regret at having to give up her work. She was always the life of the woman's work on the charge where she lived, having organized auxiliaries and circles, and giving a good deal of her time to keeping them functioning. Truly, it may be said of her that she was interested in all phase of the work of the Kingdom; and she did her best to measure up to what she thought was her duty. She loved people, and wanted them saved; but she was not satisfied simply with getting them into the church. She wanted thme put to work so they could help save others. In all of this she was so quiet and unassuming that she never took the credit for what was done. She wanted others to feel that they were leading. Surely, a "mother in Israel" has gone out from among us, and she will be greatly missed. But while she is with us no more in the flesh, her influence will linger for many years to come. The world is brighter because she lived in it; and people are better because they associated with her.

Mrs. Hunter was the mother of nine children, two of them, Mrs. A. L. Holloway and Miss Blanche Hunter having preceded her to the glory world. Surviving near relatives are: her husband, an honored superannuate minister of this Conference; two sons Rev. R. A., and Professor F. H.; five duaghters, Mrs. J. A. Short, Mrs. M. A. Hunt, Mrs. W. M. Glenn, Mrs. W. L. Edwards, Mrs. C. C. Holyfield; four sisters, Mrs. L. G. Dwiggins, Mrs. D. M. Vance, Mrs. W. W. Hunter, and Mrs. A. W. Davis, and one brother, A. B. Crews. Twenty-eight grandchildren also survive her.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hunter were held at the home near Mt. Zion Church, and at the Pinnacle Methodist Protestant Church, on Saturday morning, November 14, 1936, and were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. D. Morris, assisted by Drs. R. M. Andrews, J. E. Pritchard, and S. W. Taylor. Grandsons acted as pallbearers. Other grandchildren acted as flower bearers. Interment was in the beautiful cemetery at Pinnacle. The grave was covered with beautiful flowers brought from far and near as expressions of love and esteem for this noble mother and friend.

Jesus, while our hearts are bleeding
O'er the spoils that death has won,
We would at this solemn meeting
Calmly say, "Thy will be done!"

ELECTION LAW OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

The second quarterly conference of each pastoral charge shall nominate double the number of laymen to which the charge-circuit or station—is entitled as delegates to the Annual Conference. The pastor shall announce from each pulpit the names of nominees, and appoint a day, which shall be that on which his appointment shall fall at each church if practicable, for taking the vote by ballot for the number to which the charge may be entitled; the ballots cast by members over eighteen years of age to be received by class leaders and stewards, under the supervision of the pastor and by them to be counted, and the count forwarded to the third quarterly conference, to be compared by that body. The nominee receiving the plurality of vote shall be declared duly elected, and the pastor immediately shall certify to the Secretary of the Annual Conference the delegate elected, and such certified list shall constitute the lay roll of this Conference.

The alternate delegate shall be elected by the fourth quarterly Conference.

Only qualified members—those who are twenty-one years of age or over—shall be allowed to vote to purchase, build, repair, lease, sell, rent, mortgage, or otherwise procure or dispose of church property.

WHERE TO SEND YOUR MONEY

For World Service and Conference Interests: Offerings for Special Days and for the Annual Conference Budget and the College Apportionment: Make checks payable to J. H. Allen, Treasurer, and mail to him at Reidsville, N. C. (Do not send any money direct to the General Conference Treasurer.)

For North Carolina Branch of Woman's Work: For North Carolina Work, and for World Service. Make checks payable to Mrs. Coy L. Kearns, and send to her address—Denton, N. C.

For North Carolina Council Religious Education: Rev. J. C. Auman, Treasurer, Thomasville, N. C.

If you will observe these simple suggestions it will help keep our accounts straight, and enable you to get proper credit.
